Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

The Organization's vision is a world where humans and animals coexist in sustainable ecosystems. The Organization focuses on conservation; habitat protection; promoting biodiversity and rescue, rehabilitation release and monitoring of wildlife. Where wildlife cannot be released back to the wild, the Organization supports life time care and sanctuary. As part of a holistic approach, the Organization promotes community development, education and awareness, capacity building and the dissemination of knowledge to stakeholders in the United States and overseas. The Organization's main programs at the present time include: the protection and lifelong care of Indian Sloth Bears that have been rescued from the bear dancing trade and providing financial assistance to those entities involved in the rescue and maintenance of that endangered species; the rescue, rehabilitation and (if possible) release of captive brown bears in Armenia; the protection and conservation of critically endangered orangutans, macaques and slow lorises and releasing them back into the protected areas in the wild of Indonesia; wildlife protection strategies in Costa Rica; tackling the illegal trade in wildlife; developing holistic strategies to conserve forest habitats and promoting sustainable development. The public information program focuses on the Organization's communication activities such as the Organization's website, publication of the annual review and periodic mailings.
